BALLOON
EXPERIENCE
2016

Wherever you want!

Our trip to Madagascar has reminded us of our African roots, and has reinforced our friendships, old and new. We're ready for another year of incredible experiences. Because not even the sky's the limit!

It has been nearly 40 years since we found ourselves kindled with a blazing desire for adventure and began a ballooning trip across Africa that was to last close to a year, and that instilled in us the idea to create Ultramagic as a way to share these amazing, bonding experiences with the rest of the world. And that isn't just a manner of speaking; we really have been flying all over the globe, forging friendships everywhere we've travelled.

We go wherever the wind takes us. Recently it brought us with friends to Madagascar. As friends from around the world, you are also part of our large Ultramagic family of explorers and adventurers.

Together, we make the sky our home.

We feel we all are the sons and daughters of Jules Verne! Go fly – wherever you want!
